WILL APPEAL TO THE WORLD.

The Reform Party in St. Petersburg has Chosen the Members for a Provisional Government, and Russia's Capital may Soon be Under a Commune.

London, Jan. 23rd.—As an outcome of meetings of the St. Petersburg reform party a body of men has been constituted who regard themselves as the future Provisional Government of Russia. As yet they are political ciphers, but they hope some sudden stroke of luck will enable them to overturn the existing regime. At the same time they recognize that non-success may lead them to Siberia or the tomb. They are not adventurers but men of standing, whose names are widely known and deeply respected. Their financial policy would be to respect all Russian loans entered into before January 22nd, but to repudiate foreign loans contracted in future. They have decided with the strike leaders to appeal to the English-speaking people throughout the world for financial assistance to enable them to continue the struggle.

The London papers this morning, however, bristle with the startling statement that a revolutionary outbreak among the sailors of the 'Black Sea' fleet is now going on with many sensational details.

St. Petersburg correspondents experience great difficulty telegraphing as the police permit no one on the streets.

Scenes of Sunday Repeated.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 24th. Conflicts between strikers and troops have been occurring frequently today but riots with the same consequences as Sunday took place at the Warsaw station.

TREATY COMMISSIONER RETURNS.

H. A. Conroy, treaty commissioner, returned yesterday from the north after paying treaty at Whitefish Lake, Athabasca Landing, Sturgeon Lake, Lesser Slave Lake and Wabiscaw. He was accompanied by his son F. H. Conroy of Wetaskiwin. The trip of some 950 miles was made in about 43 days, the party leaving here on December 10th. The Indians at the places visited were apparently in a prosperous condition and no epidemics were heard of. Mr. Conroy leaves for Ottawa during the latter part of the week.

Treaty was first paid at the Landing. The party then went down the Athabasca to Pelican Portage. The river was then open in places. They reached Wabiscaw on December 22 and paid on the 23rd. From there they went to White Fish Lake, cutting a road through the burnt timber a part of the way. Treaty was paid at the Lake on December 29th. The next payment was at Sturgeon Lake on January 6th. The Slave Lake Indians were paid at three different places on the reserves and a few at the H. P. Co.'s post. The party left the Lake on the 11th and reached the Landing on the 18th, where they remained two days.

The weather, though cold about Christmas, was warmer after the New Year and travelling more pleasant. The snow was about 1½ feet deep at Wabiscaw, and at Lesser Slave Lake about the same depth as at Edmonton.

Rabbits are very plentiful throughout the north, the snow in places being tramped down as by a herd of sheep.

J. A. Macdonnell and party were at Lesser Slave Lake about Jan. 10. Messrs. Selby and S. Cyr, Dominion land surveyors engaged in running meridian line were also at the Lake. They were making good progress in the work. The Indians reported a fair and survey party southwest of Sturgeon Lake about 30 miles.

Asp. West remained at Lesser Slave Lake.

Better than depilatories, because it is not poisonous; therefore, it will not cause blood poisoning, or produce eczema, which is so common with depilatories, and does not break off the hair, thereby increasing its growth.

WANTS A MARKET.

Editor "Bulletin."

Dear Sir—, Is it not time that steps should be taken to provide a central market for this district, where farmers could bring produce of all kinds at an appointed time and be reasonably sure of disposing of what they have to sell? Live stock could be sold by auction and purchasers could be brought into actual contact with vendors, instead of having to drive about the country as they do now in search of what they want.

Present conditions of marketing are most unsatisfactory to all parties and are the subject of much adverse criticism prevailing as they do in a district as well developed as this.

Here is an extract from a letter that lately appeared in an English newspaper, relating to the Edmonton district: "The country is good and the climate generally agreeable, and if you are a lawyer, doctor or dentist, or a capitalist you can be sure of enormous fees and a high rate of interest for your money as the laws appear to favor these classes, but if you are a farmer you will have to take what you can get for your produce and will be regarded with a contemptuous toleration by the townspeople. Notwithstanding the fact that the prosperity of all these Western towns depends absolutely on the agriculturalist.

Those who make a business of buying and selling or manufacturing farm produce as well as the professional people are accumulating wealth, while the farmer who creates the wealth primarily makes a very precarious living only. No recognized marketing facilities exist here and instead of being a power in the land as the British farmer is in his own country, the Canadian farmer is simply nobody. He patiently takes what he can get for all he has to sell, buying what he requires at prices always fixed by the vendor.

"No effort is made by the towns to provide markets, the existence of which would certainly give an increase in business along all lines."

Such remarks as the foregoing do not tend to encourage immigration, and I trust that the success of the establishment of a permanent market may commend itself to the general public. I am sir, yours etc.

COURT DECISION.

Calgary Herald:—

The court en banc has given decisions in a few of the cases argued either at this sitting or previously. The judges present were: Chief Justice Elton, and Justices Wetmore, Scott, (Newlands, Prendergast and Harvey.

The appeal in the case of Rex vs. Mah Koo was dismissed. The defendant is a Chinaman, who carried on a laundry business in Edmonton, and who was convicted before the Chief Justice of having also conducted a gambling house. The Edmonton chief of police, in the evidence at the trial, deposed that he had visited Mah Koo's place on June 20, and had found a guard at the door, and a number of Chinamen around a table with dice, checkers, dominoes and money. Mah Koo was present distributing chips on demand from a cigar box. The keeper afterwards admitted that he ran a fan-tan game and made money thereat, and offered the chief a cash bribe if he would wink at the affair. The chief was not so pitiable. A Sunday night raid followed on July 10, and the game was broken up. Mah Koo was convicted. The appeal was based on certain questions of law reserved on the ground that there was no evidence of the commission of the offence. Judgment dismissing the appeal was given by Judge Harvey, Mr. Justice Scott and Mr. Justice Prendergast concurring. Mr. Justice Wetmore and Mr. Justice Newlands were of the opinion that there was not sufficient evidence to show that fan-tan was a gambling game.

The appeal in what is known as the Greek Church case was also dismissed by Justices Wetmore and Newlands. Chief Justice Elton dissenting. It was a dispute between two rival factions as to the ownership of a church and surroundings. The defendants appealed against a decision of Mr. Justice Scott and were again beaten on appeal.

Synopsis of Regulations for Disposal of Minerals on Dominion Lands in Manitoba, the Northwest Territories and the Yukon Territory

Coal.—Coal lands may be purchased at $10 per acre for soft coal, and $20 for anthracite. Not more than 320 acres can be acquired by one individual or company. Royalty at the rate of 10 cents per ton of 2000 pounds shall be collected on the gross output.

Quartz.—Persons of eighteen years and over and joint stock companies holding free miners' certificates may obtain entry for mining location.

A free miner's certificate is granted for one or more years, not exceeding five, upon payment in advance of $7.50 per annum for an individual, and from $50 to $100 per annum for a company, according to capital.

A free miner, having discovered minerals in place, may locate a claim 1,500 by 1,500 feet by marking out the same with two legal posts bearing location notices, one at each end of the line of the lode or vein.

The claim may be recorded within fifteen days if located within ten miles of a mining recorder's office, one additional day allowed for every additional ten miles or fraction. The fee for recording a claim is $5.00.

At least $100 must be expended on the claim each year or paid to the mining recorder in lieu thereof. When $500 has been expended or paid the locator may, upon having a survey made, and upon complying with other requirements, purchase the land at $1.00 per acre.

Permission may be granted by the Minister of the Interior to locate claims containing iron and mica, also copper, in the Yukon Territory, of an area not exceeding 160 acres. The patent for a mining location shall provide for the payment of royalty on the sales not exceeding five per cent.

Placer Mining, Manitoba and the N. W. T., excepting the Yukon Territory.—Placer mining claims are generally 100 feet square, entry fee $5.00, renewable yearly. On the North Saskatchewan river claims for either bar or bench, the former being 100 feet long, and extending between high and low water mark. The latter includes bar diggings, but extends back to the base of the hill or bank, but not exceeding 1,000 feet. Where steam power is used, claims 200 feet wide may be obtained.

Dredging in the rivers of Manitoba and the N. W. T., excepting the Yukon Territory.—A free miner may obtain only two leases of five miles each, for a term of twenty years, renewable in the discretion of the Minister of the Interior.

The lessee's right is confined to the submerged bed or bars of the river below low water mark, and subject to the rights of all persons who have or who may receive entries for bar diggings on bench claims, except in the Saskatchewan river, where the lessee may dredge to high water mark on each alternate leasehold.

The lessee shall have a dredge in operation within one season from the date of the lease for each five miles, but where a person or company has obtained more than one lease, one dredge for each fifteen miles or fraction, will be sufficient. Rental, $10 per annum for each mile of the river leased. Royalty at the rate of two and a half per cent, collected on the output after it exceeds $10,000.

Dredging in the Yukon Territory.—Six leases of five miles each may be granted to a free miner for a term of twenty years, also renewable.

The lessee's right is confined to the submerged bed or bars in the river below low water mark, that boundary to be fixed by its position on the first day of August in the year of the date of the lease.

The lessee shall have one dredge in operation within two years from the date of the lease, and one dredge for each five miles within six years from such date. Rental, $100 per mile for first year, and $10 per mile for each subsequent year, royalty same as placer mining.

Placer Mining in the Yukon Territory.—Creek, gulch, river, and hill claims shall not exceed 250 feet in length measured on the base line or general direction of the creek or gulch, the width being from 1,000 to 2,000 feet. All other placer claims shall be 200 feet square.

Claims are marked by two legal posts, one at each end, bearing notices in ten days. If the claim is within ten miles of a mining recorder's office, one extra day allowed for each additional ten miles or fraction.

The person or company staking a claim must hold a free miner's certificate.

The discoverer of a new mine is entitled to a claim of 1,000 feet in length, and if the party consists of two, 1,500 feet altogether, on the output of which no royalty shall be charged, the rest of the party primary claims only.

Entry fee, $10. Royalty at the rate of two and one-half per cent, on the value of the gold shipped from the Yukon Territory to be paid to the Comptroller.

No free miner shall receive a grant of more than one mining claim on each separate river, creek or gulch, but the same miner may hold any number of claims by purchase, and free miners may work their claims in partnership by filing notice and paying fee of $2. A claim may be abandoned, and another obtained on the same creek, gulch or river by giving notice and paying a fee.

Work must be done on a claim each year to the value of at least $200.

A certificate that work has been done must be obtained each year; if not, the claim shall be deemed abandoned, and open to occupation and entry by a free miner.

The boundaries of a claim may be defined absolutely by having a survey made, and publishing notice in the Yukon Official Gazette.

Hydraulic Mining, Yukon Territory.—Locations suitable for hydraulic mining, having a frontage of from one to five miles, and a depth of one mile or more, may be leased for twenty years, provided the ground has been prospected by the applicant or his agent, is found to be unsuitable for placer mining, and does not include within its boundaries any mining claims already granted.

A rental of $150 for each mile of frontage and royalty at the rate of two and one-half per cent of the value of the gold shipped from the Territory are charged. Operations must be commenced within one year from the date of the lease, and not less than $5,000 must be expended annually. The lease includes all base metals, quartz and coal, and provides for the withdrawal of unoccupied land for agricultural and building purposes.

Petroleum.—All unappropriated Dominion lands in Manitoba, the Northwest Territories and within the Yukon Territory, are open to prospecting for petroleum, and the Minister may reserve for an individual or company having machinery on the land to be prospected, an area of 400 acres. Should the prospectors satisfactorily establish such discovery as area not exceeding 640 acres, including the oil well and such other land as may be determined, will be sold to the discoverer at the rate of $1.00 an acre, subject to royalty at such rate as may be specified by order-in-council.

WILL APPEAL TO THE WORLD.

The troops discharged a volley of blank cartridges into the crowd. A party of strikers were fired upon when on the march to the capital. The number of dead is not known. There is a strong rumor current that the Czar has decided to issue a manifesto to the strikers in which he will offer to settle labor troubles by a commission, some of members to be elected by strikers and some to be officials of the Government.

Moscow is now the scene of a general strike and the Government has issued a warning that the disturbers will be fired on. The Finnish people have declared their readiness to unite in an effort to throw off the power of Russia.

AN OMINOUS CALM

HUNG OVER ST. PETERSBURG

Troops Parade the Streets Yesterday—The Mob Kept From the Heart of the City.

Bulletin Special.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23rd, 10.09 a.m.—In the centre of the city all is quiet at present but the ferment continues in the outlying industrial quarters. During the night the police made house to house visits warning the household that the rioters are threatening to divide into groups and sack the town. The official Messenger announces that up to six o'clock last night the total killed was 75 and wounded 233. The paper adds that the same precautionary measures used yesterday have been adopted for today.

The troops most of which had been withdrawn from the streets in the centre of the City during the night were reported to have assembled in considerable strength at the principal points of traffic across the bridge and the usual paths over the ice was interrupted. Street cars, including the electric lines, were running and over the frozen Neva, sledges as well as heavy vehicles were circulating freely. The strikers apparently find it impossible to reach the centre of the city. Organized masses were entering it singly and in troops traversing the streets, sullenly without stopping to converse or look at the windows, as has been their custom. Many of the principal shops are closed. Those which are open keep up their window gratings. A strong force of cavalry is patrolling the streets. Squads of infantry are posted at the corners and public anxiety is acute.

A Lull in the Storm.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23rd, 11 a.m.—Up to this hour there has been no renewal of the disturbances and the city is quiet, people generally are nervous and apprehensive and keep in doors. The strikers, looking weary and haggard after the excitement of yesterday, are collecting in little groups in the vicinity of their various headquarters and yesterday's barricades awaiting the decision of their leaders, regard the play of action. They were in an ugly mood and broke out in curses whenever soldiers marched by.

Carnage Again Begun

St. Petersburg, Jan. 23rd, 5 p.m.—The conflict has again started and the troops are attacking the populace.

Petition Which Was Not Presented.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 22.—The following is the text of the strikers' petition to the Emperor:

"Sir—We, workmen, inhabitants of St. Petersburg of all classes, our wives and children, and indigent persons, come to you, our sovereign, asking for protection. We are poor, persecuted, burdened with labor beyond our strength. We are insulted, treated not as men, but as slaves, who ought to bear their cruel fate in silence. We have suffered, but we are being plunged deeper in the mire and deprived of our rights. Uninstructed, stifled by destitution and injustice, we are perishing. We have no strength left. Sir, we have arrived at the extreme limit of endurance; we have asked but for means of livelihood, without which life is a burden and labor a continual torture.

"Our first request is that our masters should investigate our case. They have refused. We have been denied the right to put forward our claims, it being held that such right is not recognized by law."

After referring to the eight-hour day and other points of their case, the petitioners continue:

"Any one of us who dared raise his voice in the interests of the people of the working classes has been thrown into prison or transported. Kindness and good feeling have been treated as a crime. The bureaucracy has brought the country the verge of ruin by a shameful war. It is luring it to its doom. We have no voice in the heavy burdens imposed; we do not know for whom or why this money is wrung from an impoverished people, and we do not know how it is expended. This state of things is contrary to divine laws, and renders life impossible. It were better that we should all perish, we workers, and all Russia. Then good luck to capital, to exploiters, and poor corrupt officials, robbers of the Russian people.

"Assembled before thy place, we plead our salvation. Refuse not thine aid, and raise the people from their tomb. Give them the means of working out their own destiny. Rescue them from intolerable officialdom. Throw down the wall that separates. Free thy people and order that they may rule the country with thee. Secure for the people the happiness wrenched from us, leaving us nothing but sorrow and humiliation.

"We pray Your Majesty graciously to receive our demands, which are inspired by a desire for Your Majesty's and our welfare, and the consciousness of necessity of escape from an intolerable situation. Russia is too great and her needs are too varied and numerous for officials only to rule. National representation is indispensable, as only the people themselves know the country's real needs."

A Memorable Sabbath.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 22.—The most harrowing scenes of the day occurred around the Palace Square.

The square itself presented the appearance of a military encampment. Several companies of the Havlousky and Proodrajensky guards had piled their arms, while the men were sitting around camp fires or stamping on the snow to keep warm.

The strikers manned and held a small edifice at the corner of the gardens, and poured out constant objurgations and reproaches at the troops. It was in vain that officers requested them to disperse.

The crowd broke out into a storm of hoots and hisses. Then a young workman jeered at a soldier who applied his rifle butt, and with the help of comrades, dragged the workman, despite his piteous pleadings, to the lock-up. Every time the troops moved the crowds hissed them. Strikers also gathered at the entrance of the Grand Morski and Osbe Avenue, leading to the Moika canal.

The crowd at the latter place swelled to huge proportions, blocking the bridge across the canal. The order came at 1.30 p.m. to clear them off.

The colonel commanding the horse guards uttered a short, sharp command, the troopers drew their swords and advanced at a quick trot, and then broke into a gallop, riding straight for the Morka, where they were lost in a cloud of snow.

Shrieks from wounded ensued. Then came a deadly silence, broken only by the galloping of ambulance horses. The next twenty minutes passed without incident. The crowd persisted in refusing to move on for the Emperor, and continually hurling abuse at the troops, but attempted no violence. Two companies of the Probrajensky guards, of which Emperor Nicholas himself was formerly colonel, which had been in front of the Palace, formed up and marched double quick towards the fatal corner.

With awful swiftness the commanding officer shouted "Disperse! disperse! disperse!" Many in the crowd turned to flee, but it was too late. A bugle sounded and the men in the front ranks sank to knees and the companies fired three volleys, the first two with blank cartridges and the third with shot.

A hundred corpses strewed the sidewalks. Many women were pierced with bullets through the back as they were trying to escape. The police recruited a large number of sleighs to carry off the dead. Heart-rending scenes were witnessed, as wives and husbands and mothers came up to claim their dear ones, and were carried off with them in the sleighs.

It was now the turn for the crowd stationed at the Morski entrance to the square, where the Horse Guards repeated the exploit with which they had cleared Moika, and drove the people pell-mell down the thoroughfare. From thenceforward the Palace Square seemed to be the centre of interest.

A few who were wounded were picked up and conveyed to a drug store on the opposite corner of the Grand Morski and the Nevsky Prospect. No troops were visible for as much as half an hour. The crowd quickly formed outside the drug store, and an impromptu orator was found. Standing on the steps of the drug store he addressed the impromptu meeting.

The crowd, now aroused to a state of frenzy at the sight of the wounded, who were being brought out of the drug store and placed in an ambulance, saluted them as martyrs.

Every head was uncovered as the victims were conveyed away. The revolutionary element in the crowd had now got the upper hand, and they proceeded to attack every officer in sight.

BRIEF WESTERN ITEMS

Mr. A. B. Chapman formerly of Pocatello, has taken over the management of the Great West Saddlery Co., Strathcona. Mr. Fowler having resigned some time ago.

Regina Leader:—One of the best known and most highly respected citizens of Regina, passed away last Friday in the person of Mr. William Anderson, father of S. W. Anderson, druggist of this city.

Strathcona Plaindealer:—Mr. A. C. Rutherford, got home last night from Ottawa. He came much sooner than expected, on account of the dangerous illness of his little baby who has suffered an attack of pneumonia. We are pleased to state that the prospects of her recovering are good, the crisis having been passed on Wednesday.

Edmonton Herald:—J. A. C. Cameron, government timber inspector, said on a visit on Wednesday, Mr. Cameron is on his way home to Edmonton after a very extended tour of inspection having visited such places as Pigeon Lake, Gull Lake, Battle Lake, and a deal of country to the east of Lacombe. He predicts a good deal of immigration this season.

Wetaskiwin Times:—Saturday last a red letter day was reached in the history of Wetaskiwin it being the occasion when the municipal electric light plant began operations. Every thing went off smoothly and now the people of Wetaskiwin who have installed the system, are enjoying good light. The current is very steady for a new plant, and everyone is well pleased with the light. It is expected that the lamps will be in position in about two weeks, the delay being caused by the slow transportation of material.

Parksville Herald:—Eugene Rihan returned Monday from a trip to British Columbia. A good portion of his time was spent in the Okanagan valley, where reside a number of former Parksville people. All these are reported as doing well in that country, and appear to be pretty well satisfied with their lot there. The Okanagan valley is attracting a good deal of attention at the present time as the coming fruit country of British Columbia, and a great many new settlers are coming there.

Regina Leader:—Situated at the corner of Hamilton and South Railway street where it commands a fine view and makes a picturesque addition to the main thoroughfare of the city, is the new Union Bank building. The transfer of the offices and staff from the old building was made on Monday. The interior of the building is without doubt one of the finest of its kind in the city. It is finished in mahogany, the ceiling being of birch and the floor of brown and white tiles.

It is announced in Montreal that the Canadian Northern Railway Co., will be in a position to bring next year's crop out of the Edmonton district. Before leaving Toronto, Mr. Mann, the vice president of the C. N. R., stated they expected to have the main line laid to Edmonton by August. When Edmonton is reached the Canadian Northern will then have an unbroken stretch of track from Lake Superior to the Saskatchewan a distance of 1500 miles. The vice-president gave an emphatic denial to the rumor started at Ottawa that there was a probability of Mackenzie & Mann building part of the Grand Trunk Pacific in their capacity as contractors.

Strathcona Chronicle:—The third of last week's fire excitement occurred at noon on Saturday in the premises occupied by Miss Beatrice Miller. The ship had been closed for the dinner with a good fire in the stove and a chair with a box upon it a short distance away. The stove soon became so hot that the chair and box caught fire and was burning merrily when discovered by Mr. H. Wilcox, whose business premises adjoin. He burst the door open and soon had the fire extinguished. The fire had been playing about Strathcona very frequently of late, but in each case good fortune combined with hard work postponed the evil hour, but considering the flimsy nature of a large percentage of the buildings in town there will come a day when this flimsy will have gained the upper hand unless more care is exercised with stoves, more especially during the cold days.

Prince Albert Advocate:—Dr. Rumbold, an old Klondike miner of large experience, has been in this city for the past four or five days looking into his gold bridging losses which cover practically all the North Saskatchewan from Prince Albert to Battleford. He has machinery now at Saskatoon to the value of $8,000 and is negotiating for the building of the hull of his dredge, which he expects to have ready for work as soon as the river is ready to cooperate in the spring. The doctor intends erecting blacksmith and machine shops here in connection with this scheme, and negotiations looking towards a lease for this purpose are now pending between the city council and the doctor. The latter has already made a deal and in several places of the river bank, with the result that a good stream of gold is paying out at the rate of $100 a day. If the plan succeeds, the doctor will get as well as a large number of dredges will be out on the river, with the out-look.

THE planters from whom I buy my tobacco in Cuba are the most expert tobacco growers in the world. They keep the plant nipped back carefully—free from suckers and only leaves enough on the plant for it to properly mature and nourish.

In this way the good of the tobacco—the proper qualities to make it excellent smoking, are evenly distributed all through the plant. Thus the leaf I secure for my Pharaoh filler is perfect—an even smoker—palatable and delicately odorless.

J. BRUCE PAYNE, Limited, Granby, P.Q.

For the rest I use as binder a Connecticut broadleaf, the highest grade and most moistly binder grown—and as a wrapper I import direct from Holland a genuine clear leaf Sumatra—the finest wrapper in the world.—J.B.P.

CALGARY AND EDMONTON

From the Calgary Herald:

There is a mistaken notion in some quarters that Calgary and Edmonton are divided by the spirit of petty jealousy. Nothing could more directly contradict such an impression than the fight the Calgary delegates made on the floor of the convention of the Western Immigration Association at Winnipeg, by which Edmonton secured the honor of a vice-president of that organization. Edmonton was not represented. C. W. Rowley, of Calgary, insisted that the absence of Edmonton delegates should not bar that enterprising municipality from the consideration of the convention. His views were cheered as the expression of a spirit of fair play which ever Canadian business men keenly appreciate. Many delegates commented upon Calgary's attitude and declared they had heard the two chief cities of the Territories were not so cordially disposed toward each other. Nothing could be further from the truth. When the news was received in Calgary that Edmonton had closed negotiations with the G. T. P. by which all obstacles to the location of terminals of the new road in that city were removed, there were many assertions of pleasure by business men.

It is a fact which injects a pettiness into the aggressive, serious work of building up cities in the Northwest. Good sense dictates the application of the same principle of fair play between municipalities that rules between individuals. This is the feeling of every successful business man of these two Alberta cities. Each is undergoing marvelous development, each has its different mission to fulfill and there is room for each to thrive and prosper abundantly.

REPORT OF THE IRON PROPERTY

OF THE EDMONTON COAL AND IRON COMPANY

LOCATION.

About one hundred miles northeast of Edmonton on the north side of the Saskatchewan river and midway between Victoria and Lac La Biche in the North-West Territories of Canada.

TRANSPORTATION.

Good wagon roads from Edmonton and from Ft. Saskatchewan, and also south to Whitford and Battleford. The property is situated twenty miles north of the route of the Canadian Pacific Railway, near the route of the Grand Trunk Pacific, and within eight miles of the Saskatchewan river which is navigable.

CHARACTER OF COUNTRY.

Comparatively flat prairie relieved with low rolling hills, which are thickly wooded with small jack pine and fir. The pine runs from five to eight inches in diameter, and is suitable for fencing, building and fuel.

WATER SUPPLY.

There is a stream running through the property, which in the driest seasons yields an ample supply for all purposes, in addition there are two large lakes of fresh water on the property at least 300 acres.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY.

This consists of six claims in townships 58 and 59, ranges 14 and 15, west of Fourth Meridian. The claims are named Wee Aman, Irondale, Limonite, Farm, Revelstoke, Rifa and Eva, and all being fully licensed by the Dominion Government to Messrs. McAdam & Johnson, and surveyed by Messrs. Saunders & Driscoll, P.L.S., in June, 1904.

CHARACTER OF MINERAL DEPOSIT.

Oxide of iron, yielding on analysis, 45.2 per cent of metallic iron, on the certificate of Mr. A. L. McKillop, of Nelson, dated October 26, 1904.

OCCURRENCE OF DEPOSIT.

A stream runs through the property from north to south, and in the flat portions widens out into a large bog in which the ore is deposited for a distance of two miles in length and from 200 to 600 feet in width; the depth of the deposit is from six to fourteen feet. On the Wee Aman claim it is from 500 to 6000 feet in width, and is a genuine bog ore. Towards the north end of the property the ground rises and the deposit is covered by several feet of gravel, put at points where the drift is cut evidences of the continuance of the deposit underneath are found.

WORK DONE.

A number of pits have been sunk, some twenty feet deep, through the deposit, and in each its continuity over the area named has been demonstrated. In addition a trench half a mile long has been cut to drain the upper or north end of the property. On the Wee Aman claim a substantial cabin and barn have been built.

QUANTITY.

The extent of the development work will not admit of a close estimate of tonnage, but I can safely say from the areas actually measured that a million tons would be well within the mark, and it is not improbable that this estimate will be greatly increased as work proceeds.

UTILITY OF DEPOSIT.

First, an excellent paint oxide for which a market could readily be found as the country opens up and railway facilities are provided. Second, in combination with other ores for smelting and iron and steel manufacture, similar to that so successfully smelted at the Radnor Forges, Quebec, for many years.

COST OF DEVELOPMENT.

$10,000 expended in sinking and boring would thoroughly grove the property, I believe that you would have in it a most valuable asset and one easily and quickly realizable, as it is more than likely from the character and occurrence of the deposit that the springs come from a stratified ore body below which should be disclosed by boring.

Having had thirty years' experience in locating and working various iron deposits, I have no hesitation in saying that this is a valuable property and one which will justify the expenditure recommended.

FUEL.

On the banks of the Saskatchewan river eight miles south there is an outcropping of good lignitic coal running from 45 to 50 per cent in fixed carbon. This is easily accessible and available for fuel purposes.

—The City Council meet to-night to consider applications for the positions of city commissioner.

—Regular meeting of the Driving Club in A. E. May's office to-night to try and arrange a meet for Saturday.

—The flag at Alberta College is at half-mast on account of the death in Winnipeg of Dr. Riddell, brother of Professor Riddell of the College.

—The annual meeting of the Public Hospital will be held Friday, Jan. 27th, at 3 o'clock p.m. in the Council Chamber. A full attendance is requested.

—Fisheries Inspector Young has received information that the colony of black bass placed in Buffalo Lake some three years since have thrived in their new home and are increasing at a satisfactory rate.

—The Kemptville, Ont., Telegram says that no less than nine families of that town are preparing to move to the North-West within the next few weeks, and others will follow later.

—Fr. Saskatchewan Reporter:—J. J. Dunlop, D. D. G. M. paid an official visit to the Masonic Lodge here on Tuesday evening, H. Stuart-Wade, W. M. of the Edmonton Lodge, accompanied him, with Messrs Graydon and Brown.

—Messrs. J. W. Shera, M. L. A., W. A. D. Lees and D. Aylen, the deputations appointed by the citizens of Fort Saskatchewan, to interview the Federal Government, came up from the fort last evening and went south this morning.

—Mrs. M. Bileau, who was brought to the general hospital last week, suffering from burns sustained by the explosion of a lamp died at the hospital yesterday. The funeral takes place at 9.30 to-morrow morning from the hospital to St. Joachim's church.

—The ladies of the Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church gave a very successful "At Home" on Monday afternoon from three till half-past four. The affair took place in the basement of the church. About sixty ladies were present. While the refreshments were being served music was contributed by several of the present. After the refreshments, the president, Mrs. Manson, called the meeting to order, and an interesting address was delivered by the Rev. D. E. McQueen, pastor of the church.

—The taxpayers of Lethbridge will shortly vote on a proposition by the Canadian Pacific Railway for the establishment of a divisional point there entailing an expenditure of from $50,000 to $80,000 and assuring a monthly pay roll of several thousand dollars. The Lethbridge News thinks the deal negotiated by the town council is a much more favorable one for the town than that of Edmonton, the inducement offered being exempt on from taxation for twenty years and free water up to a stipulated quantity. It is undoubtedly a fact that it is to the interests of the company that the divisional point should be located here, but it is likewise a fact that it is to the interests of the whole town that the company should run into the centre of town, rather than it should locate its offices and yards somewhere near the boundary of the municipality, to the inconvenience of all, but particularly to the business men of the community. We have not the least doubt but that the proposition will receive the endorsement of the taxpayers when it is put before them.
